
Invitation to Contribute Reports and Essays

ReDi invites researchers and practitioners to submit short reports or case studies which inform readers about new practice or developing concepts. Reports may also propose collaboration or exchange.

Short essays about new challenges may also be published.

Reports will be uploaded every 3 months, and a short extract will be highlighted in the ReDi newsletter.

Guidelines for Contributors

1. Essays and Reports should be no longer than 6 pages A4, Times 12pt and double spaced
2. Footnotes should be minimized but a select bibliography can be added
3. Each submitted text should include the name and position of the author and contact details – address, telephone/mobile, email and website if relevant
4. Reports should be written in English and as far as possible, proof read before submission
5. Reports will be published on the web site at least quarterly and notified in the ReDi Newsletter
6. Submission of a text does not guarantee that it will be featured and mentioned in the ReDi Newsletter

The Contact Person for the section is Herman Noordegraaf, to whom contributions should be sent by email. The editor is assisted by a group of correspondents representing different regions and interests and by Tony Addy, a member of the Editorial Team of the Journal Diaconia.
